THE RELIGION FOR THE NEW WORLD ORDER

FINAL CONFLICT

FC is produced to offer people a political, cultural and economic answer to the internationalist foe in all its guises.

Whilst most of our articles are serious, FC does on occassion take a 'light hearted' look at things, for Nationalists must take a break now and then.

FC is published by Nationalist activists and is an independent publication; though editorially it supports the International Third Position (ITP).

DIVORCE

AFTER THEIR FAILURE to reverse Ireland's heroic law on abortion, the hidden rulers of world affairs clearly were hell bent to push through the 'yes' campaign and make divorce legal in Ireland.

Some FC readers may think "oh it's only divorce . . . it's not really all that serious." Not true. This is just the first step. Next will come Race laws, pro-homosexual laws and finally the anti-abortion law will be overturned.

The arrogant world powers will not allow little Ireland to 'buck the trend'. They will try their utmost to force these laws through.

THE EDITORIAL

Not serious? Well, look at what divorce has done in the UK. The amount of marriages that fail is rising because people realise that marriage is not for life any more. It is now a civil contractual agreement. Obviously there are bad marriages; there are bad men who beat their wives and the State must obviously do everything possible to help women and children in such terrible circumstances. But that doesn't mean we must allow marriages to be dissolved willy nilly. We have generations of latch key kids with half-brothers and sisters with two, no three, no four fathers . . . The results are there for us to see, no matter what liberal or Marxist sociologists might say.

The enemies of mankind know that to destroy the family is central to their unconditional rule over a country. That's why the 'yes' vote was pushed so heavily in Ireland. All the political parties were there (by blackmail, coercion or - if they've still got any - conviction).

The truth is that the traitors in the Dail weren't prepared to stand up to the hidden rulers and even illegally financed the 'yes' campaign.

Interestingly two of the main voices behind the 'yes' campaign were of the Jewish 'religion'. Mervyn Taylor, the first ever 'Minister of Equality' (pass the sick bucket) even had the gall to ask that the referendum be held on a Friday and not a Saturday (the Jewish "Sabbath").

At a press conference someone brought up that Jews should show more sensitivity to Christian marriage which they cannot understand. The press went wild! How dare someone mention the Jews! "Apologise! Apologise!". The enemies of mankind were truly at work . . .

THIS ISSUE

Our piece on Oklahoma is clearly important as our media made much of the "evil Militia Nazis behind the bombing". Obviously Nationalists never take the media at face value, but we hope this article will impart valuable information to all our readers and get people thinking. It is now clear that oppressive governments are prepared to commit outrages and set up agent provocateurs and 'pseudo gangs' to get rid of opponents and bring about harsh new laws.

We return to occultism this issue with our article on New Ageism. We appreciate that FC readers are aware that the 'New Age' religion is evil and to be avoided, but unfortunately there are still people out there pushing New Age beliefs and ideas in various guises. We hope the article will further educate our readers on the dangers of the New Age movement. There are also a few 'Nationalists' who - for whatever reason, probably influenced by Hollywood films more than anything - believe in eugenics, so we hope our article on Ms. Sanger will be an eye opener. So sit back, read and enjoy. . .

In FC10 we'll have articles on Race, Flemish Nationalism, an interview with 'Back to the Land' activists, blockbuster film reviews and much, much more; so order your copy now (or, as Ranting Ron says, we'll send the boys 'round).

NEWS AND VIEWS NEWS AND VIEWS NEWS AND VIEWS

ON THE INTERNET

Congratulations to Michael A. Hoffman for his superb article RXP = V or T. which appeared on the internet recently. The main gist of what he says is that to find out if a man or woman is a good Nationalist, ask not how many white rock albums he owns, nor how many swastika tattoo's he possesses, but how many children he has. At last someone has lifted up their head and smelt the coffee! He also goes on to suggest that the only way ahead is the formation of white communities without the intrusion of "Rambo-hardman-beer" types. Those people involved in the TP or those who have read our ideas for so long may just possibly have heard this idea somewhere else. We will simply carry on working behind the scenes, quietly building this "idea" into the reality it is slowly becoming. (whilst keeping it to those who need to know)

TOWARDS THE POLICE STATE

The tragic murder of Midlands schoolgirl Naomi Smith was followed by a frightening, yet not unexpected by many, step by the Police. In Nuneaton where Naomi was murdered over eight hundred men were "asked" to give DNA samples to the Police. Det Supt Bayliis, in charge of the case, stated "if someone refused to give a sample we would have to look at them more closely". Now what we have here is a precedent being set for the future, the men being asked for a sample are in a no-win situation, for if they refuse the sample they will look guilty of something

Can we assume therefore that in the future, every time there is a murder that is in the public eye a huge number of people are going to be DNA tested? Does anyone honestly believe that, should the culprit be found, that all these samples will be discarded? Hardly! This is another step towards the Police state that we are all expecting. Imagine this scenario: Some Nationalists set up a base in an area where they feel they can count on a certain amount of support, instead of keeping it discreet they announce it to the world. Now, the first time that there is a murder in the area who is visited by PC Plod for a DNA sample?... For more info on the coming Police State send £2 to Strike Force, BM 6068, London WC1N3XX

A SLUT PLAYS A HEROINE.

How sad to see that "pop star" Madonna is to play one of Nationalisms greatest heroines Eva Peron. Once again her name will be subjected to all the lies and smears we have all heard before. Luckily we have seen that Candour magazine has reprinted a speech given at a recent Nationalist meeting on Evita's life story. We suggest all readers who don't subscribe to this excellent magazine do so immediately! See the advert for subscription details elsewhere in this issue of Final Conflict.

IT'S QUIZ TIME!!!

For your chance of winning a "glow-in-the-dark Julian Clary Frisbee" just answer the following question: What have Michael Barrymore, Michael Portillo, Peter Lilley and Mary Robinson all got in common? Send all answers to "NUFTERS" c/o Final Conflict.

SEE YOU NEXT YEAR MATEY

.In July a Pilgrimage was made in Rinn, a tiny village 300 miles west of Vienna, Austria. The reason for the annual Pilgrimage is to remember the boy martyr Anderle, who according to history, was ritually murdered by Jews. Over three hundred Christians defied a ban to attend and pray.

UNMASKING THE TRUE FACE OF SOCIALISM

The former director of the Bank for Eastern countries (BERD) and well known advisor to President Mitterand, Jaques Attali recently revealed that one of the ethical bases for future European unity should be the legalization of euthanasia.

This well known member of Socialist intellighentsia was quoted thus.."I believe that the most important thing in life is not to work but to be able to consume, to be a consumer among other consumer machines. I believe that , in the same logic of the industrial system in which we live, the prolongation of life is no longer an objective desired by the logic of power. Once man becomes older than 60-65 years of age, man lives longer than what produces and thus he is costly to society. Actually, from society's point of view, it is preferable that the human machine stops bluntly rather than deteriorates progressively...As far as I am concerned, as a Socialist, I am objectively against the extension of life because it is a waste, a false problem. Euthanasia will be one of the essential instruments of our future societies in all their forms. To begin with, in all the Socialist logic the problem is to be seen against this background: the Socialist logic is freedom, and the basic freedom is suicide; as a consequence, the direct or indirect right to suicide would then be an absolute value in such society." So much for the "caring" face of Socialism!

"LUCKY" OLD US

The Sun newspaper continues its "fight" against political correctness by employing a columnist dedicated to exposing left wing councils and other forms of PC. Great you may think, this "paper of the working class" (who could forget their attempts to get friends and neighbours to grass on "dole cheats") has employed a Mr Leo Mckinstry to "save" us from the loony left. (but who is going to save us from the loony right?) In his very first article, Mckinstry claims that he was the head of his college student union, but he was enraged when activists tried to ban Jewish student societies on the basis that Zionism is racist. How lucky we are to have Mr "impartial" Mckinstry to look after us!!

A WITNESS TO MURDER

This was the title of an article in the Birmingham Evening Mail written by Maureen Messant. The story tells how Messant helped a young Asian girl to get an abortion because of her fear of what her family would do when they found out. Messant often mentions the fact that she is a Catholic, and in this article she mentions that GOD would forgive her for this. We do not know what kind of religion Messant has been practising but the Church regards Abortion as willful murder and we believe that Messant is more to blame for the death of an innocent child than the Asian girl. It is also highly likely that the Girl herself will never forgive Messant for what she has done after growing up and realising that no amount of shouting or even beatings from her family is worth the murder of an innocent.

TROUBLE WITH THE POST

America's leading newspaper the Washington Post has had a few problems of late. Recently over four hundred journalists met in a conference to discuss accusations made by the magazine "The New Republic" that the Washington Post was giving jobs to Blacks rather than Whites even when the Whites were considered more suitable for the jobs. The reason for this was rumored to be that it would curry favour with the city's Black leadership: Once again affirmative action has been shown up to the world as a farce.

"NOT OUR FAULT!"

IF EVER ANY proof were needed that agri-business is bad for our people as well as our land, the cases of Creutzfeldt-Jacob disease (CJD) provides it. CJD is the human equivalent of Mad Cow Disease (Bovine Spongiform Encephalopothy - BSE).

Cows caught BSE from eating Sheep infected with scraple - a similar brain affecting disease. Now humans are catching CJD. All because agri-business is interested in wealth before health. As yet no "proof" exists that humans catch the disease from infected beef, but as the experts say the incubation period can be anything between 5 and 30 years, so there could be umpteen more cases out there.

Just as agri-business is prepared to pollute our soil with chemicals and genetically engineer cattle breeds in laboratories to make a fast buck, so they cut corners to save money which resulted in BSE and now CJD. Still, what's a few lives compared to nice fat profits?

SPOT SPOT

WE KNOW how difficult it can be to keep your children amused, especially on rainy days or on school holidays, when the common cry of the young is "I'm bored!". Well, we're a caring bunch at FC, so we've devised a way to keep them happy for hours!

In each issue we'll hide Spot the Dog in a different place. So next time your 'young ones' are restless, give them a copy of FC and watch them while away the hours. Who knows - they may even want their own copy!

FC - the best read around - for all the family!

VIRGIN ON THE RIDICULOUS

IN THE LAST FC we asked our readers to boycott Virgin given its support of homosexuals. It should therefore have come as no suprise to us that a poll commissioned for Radio One, Richard Branson was the third person most people would ask to write a new set of commandments!

When asked for a new set of commandments the "young people" came up with:

1. Thou shalt not drink and drive.
2. Thou shalt not be racist.
3. Thou shalt not take drugs.
4. Thou shalt care for the environment.
5. Thou shalt be loyal to friends.

The brainwashing of our youngsters is obviously carrying on apace.

Meanwhile, Virgin have their own 'personal financial service' which is being heavily advertised in the press. We were pleased to note their address: Virgin Direct, PO Box 161, FREEPOST, Discovery House, Whiting Road, Norwich, NR4 6BR.

We just hope no anti-homosexual extremists take it upon themselves to send junk mail to this address, thus causing expense to Virgin. And what if they were careful not to get any fingerprints, saliva etc. on the package and not send it from a traceable place? that would be just terrible. We advise our readers to do no such thing.

FC PRISONER WELFARE

WE ARE APPEALING to our readers to help incarcerated Nationalists at home and abroad. One easy way we can help these people is by sending them FC and other materials (periodicals, books, posters etc.) regularly. With the number of prisoners involved in the UK, Europe, North America etc. the costs are high. By donating a small amount each FC reader can ensure a Comrade behind bars isn't abandoned, feels wanted, and is getting good reading material. Of course all FCs etc. are sent free of charge. All we asking for is donations to cover postage. For example, it costs about 30p to send an FC to a prisoner in the UK. At the other end of the scale it costs about £1 to send an FC to an American prisoner. There are dozens and dozens of incarcerated Nationalists out there (such as the two whose letters feature in this issue), so we're hoping for a good response to this appeal.

Remember that one day it could be you that's framed and jailed, so please donate generously! We promise that every penny will be used to mail materials to our prisoners - not one penny will be wasted!

Please send cheques etc. payable to 'FINAL CONFLICT' to our usual address. Make it clear how much of your donation is for our Prisoner Welfare programme. UK stamps can also be sent. Please send all donations etc. recorded delivery to ensure safe arrival. For the prisoners: TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!!! If we get a good response we will open a seperate account to solely deal with prisoner welfare.

POLITICAL PRISONER

HANS SCHMIDT, the editor of the German American Nationalist newsletter GANPAC BRIEF is now in jail in Germany. His crime was to write a letter to a German official in which he stated that he did not believe in the so-called Holocaust. Whilst visiting elderly relatives in Germany he was arrested by the secret police on August the 9th. He, a U.S. citizen, has been held in custody without being officially charged, since that time. When he appeared before a Judge on September the 5th he was denied bail and his wife and friends are denied the right to see him. Talk about 1984!

This man is no rapist, no mugger, no drug pusher, but in modern Germany has committed the worst possible crime - to have an opinion on the holocaust. Watch out, watch out, the thought police are about!!!

Write to the German embassy in your country and demand that Hans Schmidt be released. Remember that he is a U.S. citizen, wrote the private letter in the U.S. where it is not a crime to do so. American readers can send donations to: Hans Schmidt Defence Committee, PO Box 871, Green Brook, NY 08812, USA (Ph. 908-753- 7347.) They are also organising demonstrations.

ACTIVIST NEWS

Third Position activists have been busy over the last few months throughout the UK, but special mention must go to activists in Edinburgh, Thames Valley, Central London, Tyneside and especially West London. Agit-prop has been the name of the game, with organisers proving their worth with gems like the poster of Guy Fawkes with the words "The only honest man to enter parliament" going up around fireworks night. Local activists made the Surrey Herald because of their hard work in one area.

Let's keep up the hard work in 1996. It's important that activists send reports of events in their area c/o FC or a safe address so that we can keep folk up to date with events in FC (and in organisers and members bulletins).

THE ENGLISH DIDN'T TAKE A FLAG . . .

59 YEARS since the murder (at the hands of freedom loving Democrats) of José Antonio and 20 years after the death of General Franco the lads from FC were off to Spain again. We got to Madrid in the middle of the week with lots of FCs and a few thousand stickers and leaflets and a Welsh flag. I'll say nothing here about the English Comrades' failure to take a flag . . . About £10 per night for the hostel was OK except that the TV was all in Spanish (so we couldn't follow the news).

This year the demo was moved from the normal site in the Plaza De Oriente to the other side of Madrid by the State in the hope that people wouldn't find it. The media spent weeks lying about "right wing" violence etc. in an attempt to scare off families and "respectable" people. The only violence on the day came from an Anarchist who blew himself up trying to make a bomb (how sad).

On Friday a Nationalist Movement very kindly invited us along to a 'cheese & wine' type do at their HQ which was good (and free). On Saturday it was up early and off to a meeting for Comrades from all over Europe. Each speech was given in two or three languages, not English, but it was good as we met up with lots of old and new Comrades. Afterwards we all, a few hundred by now, had lunch together and then it was off to the Valle De Los Caidos with thousands of others - thanks to the Germans and the Dutch for the lift! The Valle is an incredible place for anyone to go and visit at any time, but throw in thousands of Nationalists, flags, a mass for José Antonio and Gen. Franco and lots of singing and it was all very moving. A couple of French journalists got a slap outside but ran away before the Welsh could get through the crowd.

By Sunday Madrid was well covered in our stickers, the bars were running low on beer and we were off to the demo with our FCs, leaflets (I don't know what it was about but I couldn't find the word 'Gibraltar') and a Welsh flag . . . still no English flag. We helped a few Spaniards find the demo. The flag went down very well in the 8 - 10,000 strong crowd. Luckily no-one asked me to do a solo of the Falange anthem 'Cara Al Sol' (Facing the Sun) but not to be outdone the Welsh sang our song about the FWA and did the little dance that went along with it (which went down very well indeed).

The speeches all sounded OK. Ynestrillas gave the King and the media a good telling off. He also predicted that Spain would vote for the Party Popular (Tory) next time as they've had years of Socialism. Then the people would look for a real alternative after the right wing prove that it is democracy that is corrupt and not just Socialism.

DUTCH UPDATE

THE NVP/CP'86 has, since we introduced it in the last FC, made good progress. The new magazine Revolutionaire Nationalist came out six times in 1995. There have been various actions and demonstrations. The demos were all banned, but went ahead regardless. The last two demos in particular were interesting. The first was held on the 9/12/95 in the southern village of Vaals near the borders of Germany and Belgium. It was a combined effort with the youth wing of the German NPD and the Flemish action group Voorpost. Some 70 Nationalists turned up despite the media stating that the police would "interfere heavily" if any Nationalist got near Maastricht (the original destination). The demo was held against the Europe of the "Maastricht Agreement", as the treaty was signed 4 years before in December 1991. As the march went through the streets of Vaals, chants went up and leaflets handed to surprised shoppers. On the steps of the townhall speeches were made. The police then marched in with dogs, horses and vans before the demo was closed.

On the 23/12/95 the Rotterdam branch of the NVP/CP'86 called a demo against the banning of wearing the Dutch flag on "bomberjackets" in several schools. This is extremely popular with the youth in big cities. Some 10,000 leaflets were given out publicising the demo. The mayor agreed to a demo - at an earlier time and out of town. The organisers refused and the demo was banned. Still some 3 - 400 youth turned up. One 15 year-old girl was arrested for doing the "nazi salute" and some 100 riot squad police dispersed all youth with short hair (not just skinheads - many Dutch youth have short hair) to far away from the demo site. The Rotterdam branch will rally again in defence of the Dutch flag in schools, in January 1996 !

On the 19/11/95 the NVP/CP'86 held the first ever national party. Some 140 members met up and enjoyed themselves, with food, drink, music and 'infostands'. 1996 sees the tenth anniversary of their founding so an even bigger party is planned!

PROFITS

NOT PROPHETS

The Church of England has sold its £3.6 million share in Rupert Murdoch's satellite TV company BSkyB due to it launching the Playboy Channel, not long after the Methodist Church sold its £846,000 holding. What a bloody joke!

Murdoch's channels spew out (semi-) pornographic films on a regular basis as well as other dubious programmes pushing poofs, promiscuity, abortion, race-mixing etc. etc. Not only that, but Murdoch's papers (inc. 'The Sun') revell in smutty news stories and also push all sorts of immoral and liberal ideas.

That any Church should even think of investing in the Capitalist stock market is a joke anyway (surely this is gambling - which Methodists are supposed to be banned from) but that they'd invest with a Murdoch company is a very sick joke.

TECHNOLOGY FUND

WE HAVE HAD a good response to our past Technology Fund appeals, so much so that we have been able to purchase a new fax machine and are on the verge of purchasing a new pentium pc and laser printer. The fax machine is for internal use: ie. the people who help produce FC around the country and abroad can now fax articles, artwork etc. The pc will help improve the quality of FC considerably. The equipment that this and past FCs has been produced with is pre-historic to say the least!

All we need is one last big push. Our target is £500. So whether you can send £100 or just £5 we want to hear from you. Send all donations payable to 'FINAL CONFLICT' to: The Secretary, BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England. Always use recorded or registered delivery. OKLAHOMA - WHO BENEFITS?

AS SOON AS the news came across the Atlantic about the 'Oklahoma bombing' educated Nationalists were saying the magic word "conspiracy". With this in mind we at FC attempted to piece together what we could. So far, thanks to anti-government and patriotic American journals we have: indications from seismograph of more than one bomb and the fact that the police confirmed that there was more than one bomb. Then we have the fact that a fertilizer bomb would have left 15 to 20% of the fertilizer unburnt, scattered as a burning acid-type substance as well as a toxic gas that would have caused painful gagging and coughing in the area, neither of which occurred.

There are rumours that the ATF (the supposed 'target') floor was empty on the day whilst other departments suffered deaths and injuries. This hints towards some sort of warning.

Even more disturbing, in the magazine Soldier of Fortune (June 95 edition - released May 95 prior to the Oklahoma tragedy) is a photo of three ATF agents on their way to the Waco trial. Two are identified, the third is not and he is a dead ringer for none other than Timothy McVeigh!

Then we have the affidavit of a former Justice Department employee who was taking a six week course in domestic terrorism (at which even Janet Reno sat in twice). As part of the course the writer of the affidavit and a colleague were asked to write a synopsis of a terrorist attack on a government building - they were shown a photo of a "typical government building" but "no mention of its location was made to us".

When the bomb(s) went off in Oklahoma the former JD employee recognised that the bombers had followed their synopsis exactly and he/she recognised the Oklahoma Federal Building as the one that was shown to them in the class. He/she was given safe haven and resigned his/her employment with the Justice Department.

It is tempting to form a blanket conspiracy theory - ie. that the whole government and media is involved in some form of cover-up, but it seems more likely that there are vested interests responsible, with others simply 'following orders' or believing the lies of others (see the film 'JFK' for similar goings on).

The following article, by famous American patriot Louis Beam, looks at the background to the bombing and the actual event from a number of angles and comes to very clear conclusions.

FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS THE BOMBING IN OKLAHOMA CITY

BY LOUIS BEAM

If in the November of 1963 someone had told the American people that the CIA had played a role in the murder of President John F. Kennedy, few would have believed it at that time. Slightly over 30 years after the assassination it is hard to find an informed citizen who does not know of involvement by CIA agents in JFK's death. Indeed, the very records that would show conclusively that a branch of government participated in killing a president of the United States have of necessity been sealed from public view for the rest of this century. A requisite sealing and hiding of truth if malevolent forces in government were to remain in power. In analysing the bombing of the Oklahoma federal building, or any other crimes for that matter, one must follow certain guidelines. In the financial world the dictum always is "follow the money" if one wants to discover the culprits. In the political world one must ask "who benefits?" as well as "why?" to determine those likely to be behind an act. A further tool in tracking down those responsible for present crime is to allow history to serve as a willing witness. A witness which often provides an unobstructed window into the future.

The paramount threat to the Constitution of this nation is not the United Nations nor some socialist pipe dream of a "New World Order". The rope that is strangling the life and breath out of liberty is held tightly in Washington be governmental hands intent upon conducting a police-state lynching of liberty. This hanging was designed from the very beginning to snuff out freedom. A fierce choke-hold on America that became tighter moments after the horrendous explosion and senseless loss of life in Oklahoma City.

As a political crime, clearly the bombing in Oklahoma City serves the interest of, and will benefit solely, those in government wanting more power over each citizen of this country. And surely, along with the handful of guilty Oklahoma City bombers, every single innocent citizen in the United States will be punished for the act, by having rights and freedoms infringed as government response to the event is to legislate new laws which further erode constitutional liberties. This erosion of liberty is totally unnecessary to convict those responsible for the act, but completely necessary to construct the mechanisms needed in fostering what now constitutes the emerging Federal police state.

The bombing in Oklahoma was a gift from hell for those in government who want to subject the American people to the type of political system that Joe Stalin would have been proud of. It is further evident from this tragic event that the birth pains of state tyranny will be traumatic for everyone in America: For the federal agents ordered to enforce totalitarian rule, for the many citizens who yet remain its unknowing intended victims, to the unsung heroes who will arise in opposition. Champions of freedom will emerge from within the government as well as from citizens at large. For America does not sleep any longer. Its sons and daughters no matter their station and position in life have awakened from the slumber that allowed evil men to corrupt government, the media and the country. Citizens, for the first time in this century, have become acutely aware of the subterfuge and criminal politics conducted by those in government. Defilement of the Republic can no longer be hidden from the view of these modern day Patrick Henrys for the alarm has sounded. The liberty bell has began to ring loudly, and would-be federal tyrants know for whom the bell tolls. A political rebellion against those in power and the evil they represent is on-going. Long-confused, misled, lied to, and betrayed, the people are now taking back the government. Piece by piece, election by election, corrupt politician by corrupt politician, a transfer of power is in process. Immense fear and paranoia are rampant in Washington DC. These are desperate times for men in the halls of Congress, the chambers of the Senate, the Oval Office of the White House and the secret dens of police state enforcers. The deadly rattle of anger coming from the banks of the Potomac is understandable for many of these corrupters have invested their life's work as well as made their fortunes erecting the serpentine apparatus of control, power, and money that seeks to poison this Republic with its venom. Such men will stop at nothing to maintain their grasp upon this country. Calculating, cold, and desperate, it is an inescapable conclusion that they will strike at now-aware citizens while they yet possess the means to do so. Citizens of this nation must truly beware the cursed fangs of little men with big power.

WHO BENEFITS?

Who benefits from the bombing of the federal building? The FBI, government police agencies, bureaucrats, corrupt politicians, and Bill Clinton. An angry and horrified public may be seen on nightly news singing media-orchestrated praises to the FBI for their quick work in nabbing the suspected bomber. This is the same FBI who but one day before the bombing was the brunt of three long years of citizen outrage which began with the FBI's "hostage rescue team" (sic) sniper-killing of Mrs. Weaver in Idaho as she stood holding an infant in her arms. Outrage spread like the Waco church firestorm after the deaths of nearly a hundred innocents by ATF and FBI agents at Mt. Carmel, a place where tragically the funeral pyre of innocent children was to reach further towards the heavens than those of the little ones of Oklahoma City who were to follow them. A place where, because of media lies, few tears were shed for those without sin, crime or blemish, were burned without recognition. The media with their agenda would later shed crocodile tears for the lesser numbers of children killed at Oklahoma City. Both places are monuments to senseless slaughter and lies unknown in this country in the Twentieth Century.

Clearly the corrupt Clinton administration and some equally corrupt allies in Congress and law enforcement must be rendering heartfelt thanks to whatever god they worship for the bonanza Oklahoma has brought them. New laws to be passed, new enemies to be created, new heights to be reached in government spying and intrusion into the lives of citizens, new budget requests for armed jack boots far exceeding anything previously justifiable before the bombing, the FBI rehabilitated after its drunken orgy of blood and murder in Waco. A thousand more such police state enforcers for the FBI will be asked for - and because of the bombing - granted by ignorant men in Congress unaware of the history of state tyranny that the American Revolution was fought to end. The cold black boot of armed mercenaries of the state will trample upon every nook and cranny of this nation in search of those who cry out against injustice, of those brave enough to raise voices of dissent against a new world order of police, prisons and persecution.

WHO REALLY DID THE BOMBING?

First, as a condition of reasonable inquiry and for the sake of fair analysis, let us assume that the government had no hand in the actual bombing that benefits them so much. Second, let it be further assumed that McVeigh and Nichols are not being set up by the government or by actual agents of the government but are rather men who took it upon themselves to commit the act that has brought so much immediate harm to the people in Oklahoma, and soon will bring harm to the rest of the nation by increasing the power of the police state. What then would produce the amount of frustration necessary to motivate decorated Gulf War veterans to carry out such an act independent of any government collusion? Two things come to mind: Failure of government to punish those who killed Mrs. Weaver and her son at Ruby Ridge, and failure of government to punish those in law enforcement who murdered innocent men, women and children at Waco. Had FBI agent Larry Potts, and those under him, been tried and punished for issuing shoot-to-kill orders at Weaver's cabin instead of receiving governmental immunity, perhaps McVeigh and his cohort would not have felt the need personally to punish the government for its crimes. Janet Reno, in a statement announcing the promotion of Potts to the number two position in the FBI, stated that the butcher of Ruby Creek and Waco is "the very best the FBI has". The best for what? Shooting women at their front doors? Gassing children to death then burning their bodies to prevent public exposure of the crime? Murder, cover-up, political assassination? The best for what?

Had a grand jury in Waco indicted those who ordered the tanks in and those who drove them, along with the ATF agents who stormed the church without a valid warrant, then perhaps McVeigh would have felt the American system of government was working and there was no need for him to become judge, jury and executioner. But because those in government have placed themselves above the law by which the rest of America must live, McVeigh brought the law of the lynch mob to the government. When law breaks down, the vigilante is called forth. Janet Reno, Attorney General, protected the murderers of the ATF and FBI. Bill Clinton, criminal extraordinary himself, attempted to excuse federal conduct to the nation. Millions did not buy it - McVeigh may have been one of them. Clinton and Reno are, then, most responsible for the bombing in Oklahoma City, not because of a conspiracy, not because of a sinister plot, but simply because they failed to punish those in government who did wrong and thereby fostered McVeigh's belief that the federal government was willing, at great expense of life, to police everyone but itself.

WOULD THE GOVERNMENT DO IT?

The second possible scenario and one many see as much more likely, is that the bombing was conducted by elements within the government itself. Before the bombing, anti-government public opinion and militias were sweeping the country. Growing daily was a tidal wave of resentment against the corrupt little men in high places. A literal flood of resistance to Washington racketeering and abuse of human rights was rushing towards the throne of corruption on the banks of the Potomac river. In this view, the Oklahoma bombing is a federal dam against such public opinion - a dam of dead bodies designed to hold back the flood of opposition, to redirect public opinion away from Washington and against those who oppose government. Is this possible? Is it really likely that the government would do such a thing? Let history answer these questions. For only by knowing what has been done by such men in the past, can we judge present events.

What explosion in the dead of night led to a declaration of war against Spain? The sinking of the battleship Maine in Havana harbour with the loss of 260 men was blamed on a Spanish torpedo. The news media used this incident to manipulate public opinion in favour of war. Years later the ship was uncovered from the mud of the harbour revealing that the explosion had gone off inside the ship in the forward ammo magazine.

A VERITABLE LITANY OF GOVERNMENTAL DECEPTION

The U.S. entered WW1 after the Lusitania was sunk by a German U Boat on the high seas. Americans were told by the news media that the vessel was an "innocent passenger ship" merely carrying tourists to Europe. In fact, some 55 years later, the manifest of the Lusitania was finally made public and revealed that it was a registered warship commissioned for carrying ammunition. The loss of lives of many young men was made possible in no small part because of this deception by sinister forces within the government who favoured war.

What bombing produced an instant declaration of war on Japan and Germany in 1941? December 7th is truly a day of infamy. But no more for the Japanese than for President Roosevelt and others in the administration who knew the Japs were on their way to bomb Pearl Harbour. Their murderous failure to warn the young men on the ships there was treason. 2403 sailors and soldiers died in a hail storm of bombs dropped from Japanese planes. Yet the government, in vain attempts to hide its complicity in the bombing at Pearl Harbour, has classified as top secret the documents dealing with the months proceeding the bombing and immediately after. Classified documents dealing with a war that ended 50 years ago. A huge cache of top secret records at the U.S. Navy Storage Depot at Crane, Indiana, many of them dealing with the Japanese attack upon Pearl Harbour, remain hidden from public view. An estimated 28.6 million pages and 4,631 rolls of microfilm remain classified materials from WW2. Why the fear of releasing the documents? Because many of the WW2 generation are yet alive and would instantly become foes of Washington were they to see the documents. These documents dealing with the Roosevelt conspiracy to withhold information obtained through the breaking of secret Japanese codes, are records that expose murderously criminal behaviour and are not to be released until the next century. Other classified documents currently lying on shelves in the National Archives are growing older by the day, fading, but not fading as fast as the generation who fought the war. Admiral Kimmel, the commander at Pearl Harbour that fateful day, later called Roosevelt "a damned traitor", and so he most certainly was.

WHAT TORPEDO ATTACK UPON A U.S. SHIP "IN INTERNATIONAL WATERS" LED TO WAR IN VIETNAM?

The Tonkin Gulf resolution was passed immediately after Lyndon Johnson and others in the federal government deceived the American people into believing that a U.S. destroyer was attacked without provocation by the North Vietnamese navy. It was revealed ten years later that no such attack had occurred. This deception by the President of the United States led to the deaths of 57,800 men in Viet Nam. The government to this day has engaged in a criminal cover-up of the fact that they left another 2,500 in bamboo cages as prisoners of war. Would the government lie to the American people? Ask a PoW?

Finally, newspaper accounts of the arrests of Egyptians accused of blowing up the World Trade Centre reveal that not only did the FBI have advance notice of the bombing but, worse, their informant, a former Egyptian army officer, built the bomb. Emad Ali Salem infiltrated the anti-Israel group for the FBI, who asked him if the Egyptians could build a bomb. Salem told them they could not. The FBI instructed Salem to build a bomb for the Egyptians, using phoney powder. Then the FBI told Salem to use real explosives. Salem did as he was told but began secretly to tape his FBI handlers in their meetings. Transcripts of these recordings were published in the New York Times in October, 1993. Properly placed, the bomb would have killed a hundred thousand rather than the six people it did kill. According to court documents filed in New York, the FBI had advance knowledge of the bombing. But the decision was made on orders from the highest levels within the government to allow it to occur. Why? Why did the government need a bombing with great loss of life? Is the Omnibus Counter Terrorism Act so important to their police state plans that they had to try a second time? Was Oklahoma City a successful second try for the government? It is clear then, that bombs, torpedoes, and lies have been the bloody tools of government for manipulating and shaping public opinion for all of the Twentieth Century. Would anyone but a fool not suspect government complicity in the Oklahoma tragedy? Is there any compelling reason to give government the benefit of the doubt now? Those who know and study history can reasonably assume the government was behind the Oklahoma bombing. Clearly the disaster there served the interests and purposes of sinister forces within government who want to pull the rope tighter around the neck of all of us, left, right, centre. The government cares not one wit about the politics of those it seeks to control, only that they are controlled. Today they wish to spy on and violate the rights of those on the right, tomorrow it will be the left. The all-seeing eye of the state will look evenly upon us all.

Finally, the explosion that went off in John Fitzgerald Kennedy's head led to the passage of the 1968 gun control act, even though elements in government had performed the assassination. Those who wish to foist on the American people a new world order plainly care nothing for the lives of Americans, whether they are presidents, women with babies, small boys with dogs, or children at Waco or Oklahoma City.

Indeed it seems clear that one can safely state that public policy by bombing is a long standing tradition of the federal government. Is the Oklahoma City bombing a break with tradition, or merely old methods in new places?

Let history judge and reason rule. Blaming the bombing in Oklahoma City on the militia or unnamed "patriots", is an obscenity. For it was after all, the taking of lives by government at Ruby Ridge and Waco that provided the innocent blood that gave birth to the militia and the associated anti-government feeling currently sweeping this nation. It was the absolute terror and shock of watching black boots from the government kill, then kill again that motivated Americans to awake from their long peaceful slumber only to find that a nightmare government had metastasised while they slept. Ruling America was a deadly viral-like plague of murderers, swindlers, petty tyrants, liars and would-be police state functionaries who had infected government institutions and the establishment news media to the point that both have become deadly to the health of the people. A government by deceit and deception has spawned from the cesspools of mental degradation known only to the lowest sorts of human kind. This political Ebola virus spread rapidly until American citizens began to eradicate it through grass roots action. The Centre for Disease Control in the political realm has been American patriots who seek to end the nightmare, not perpetuate it.

The black boots of the police state do not operate in a vacuum, they are directed by political leaders who are elected. One must keep in mind that there will always be thousands of low intelligence, height testosterone brutes who will willingly attack their fellow citizens for money, perks, and a federal pension plan for retirement. Directing ones anger at these unthinking state supported terrorists is not efficient nor conducive to correcting the problem. Rather, we must "take out" the political leaders who send them. Two-thirds of the senate, seventy or so men and a few post menopausal hags, along with about 250 or so house members and this black plague is not only contained but reversed. This can all be done legally by casting ballots at the pole rather than waiting for the federals to come to your front door. Americans must beware those who seek to focus their attention on the far more numerous but vastly less important church door smashers of the ATF and black booted back shooters of the FBI, who are after all, nothing more than "cannon fodder as good as any". To control this disease of the American spirit we must go straight for the command and control centre in Washington. We still have the power to take back America so long as free elections are held. Between now and the next national election we must all arm ourselves with a voter registration slip and use it like a .308 sniper weapon to "take out" the infectious bought whores of the new world government who are now proposing to rule us all with an Orwellian iron fist - forever beating us all into submission, while claiming to be protecting us.

Let it be made clear that those in opposition to the police state must not become like those they oppose. It is the government's style to kill innocent women and children. If we who love freedom become like FBI hostage rescue agents, wantonly murdering, killing, maiming and destroying the lives of innocent citizens, then what difference does it make who wins this conflict between federal evil and American good? Let us all strive mightily to make a difference.

Mr. Beam has clearly made a valuable contribution to the ensuing discussions on Oklahoma and the American political situation. We'd like to make it clear however, that we do not believe the electoral road alone can bring success - obviously we can support candidates who are anti-abortion, anti-federalist etc. but we should not be blind to party politic's poisonous nature. Our main objective must be to build a counter power to the corrupt system and not rely on its structures which are corrupt and will crumble.

Vichy: A look at the facts.

Perhaps one of the most ignored and yet one of the most interesting aspects of the Second World War was the French Vichy Government.

It is a constant cause of embarrassment to the French State, for it is becoming increasingly difficult for them to deny the fact that a large percentage of the French Nation supported the Vichy regime.

To understand the reaction of the French it is necessary to understand the implications of the French Revolution on French society. As explained in the article in a recent issue of FC on Freemasonry the French Revolution turned society on its head. Gone was the realization that authority comes from God, and therefore with it an obligation to teach true morality and mans' duty to his fellow man. Instead we have a set of morals that are ever changing to whatever whim the majority of people support at a given time.

The large block of people who opposed these ideas began to form an unlikely alliance in the years leading up to the War. Branches of Conservatism, National syndicalists, Nazis, Catholic Groups and simply those who favoured a return to Tradition, all linking through radical magazines opposed to the ideas of the French Revolution.

The lie that French Nationalism was simply a form of extreme conservatism is put to rest when we see how many members of left wing organizations between the wars became fanatical supporters of the National Revolution, when it fully developed under Petain's leadership.

Many of Petain's beliefs were taken from the ideas of Charles Maurras, leader of Action Francaise. In turn, many of Maurras' ideas were taken from the great social thinker Rene de La Tour Du Pin. This man did more than most to spread the idea of Corporatism throughout Europe before the second World War. La Tour du Pin believed that only through corporatism, ie social grouping by profession and occupation, and a return to the guild structure, with all the representation in Government that it implies, could man end the strife caused by class war. Thus both working class and middle class patriots supported the theories put forward by this lover of social justice.

There is no doubt that La Tour du Pin fully realized the Jewish role in the social upheavals of the twentieth century, to quote him; "It is the Jewish idea that has led the rich to exploit the poor by means of the modern form of usury ie capitalism,.....the false ideas of Liberty and equality were essentially the work of the Jews, and are incompatible with Christian spirit and civilization."

ACTION FRANCAISE

It could be argued that Action Francaise was formed in 1906, but it was not until 1908 when they founded a daily newspaper, that they took France by storm. And not only France, throughout Europe the influence of Charles Maurras' ideas spread like wildfire.

The activities of Action Francaise caught the imagination of the population and scared the daylights out of those people conspiring to destroy France. In 1909 a series of public lectures at the Sorbonne were given by a liberal professor who had, in the past, insulted the memory of Blessed Joan of Ark. At the very first lecture members of the newly formed militant Camelots du Roi stormed the lecture, drowned out the speaker, threw objects at the professor and one eventually climbed onto the rostrum and publicly humiliated the professor by slapping him across the face for his comments. This was typical of the activities of the organization, not only to counter violence with violence, but to humiliate its opponents in full view of the public. (a policy used on many occasions by the League of Empire Loyalists) In a similar way to the Iron Guard, the Action Francaise used songs to explain the way they felt.

Was Petain the evil Dictator that we hear about today? Or was he the Father figure to a French Nation united in its aims, and its destiny of a return to a France loyal to its Traditions and its values?

CHARLES MAURRAS

Maurras first came to the publics attention at the time of the Dreyfus affair. For those who do not know the story: Dreyfus was a French army captain, this Jew was tied and convicted of spying for imperial Germany in 1894. This incident seemed to divide the Nation into two, the Liberals and leftists on the one side, and the Traditionalists and Nationalists on the other. Dreyfus was a literary scholar but due to his comments on the Dreyfus affair he was led into the world of politics.

Although many people regard Maurras as the true originator of Fascism, it depends on what is truly regarded as "Fascist?" If Fascism includes regarding the smallest society, ie the family as the most important part of society then it is quite possible, however many believed the State to be the all important issue, hence the awkward alliance between the all pervading state control of National Socialism and the Corporate structure of the Vichy regime. The ideas of Maurras spread world wide, we can see the influence on Salazar, Mussolini, Dollfuss, Pavelic and all those who followed the Corporate idea rather than "State worship". Even the heroic Vasille Marin of the Iron Guard in Rumania was in regular contact with Maurras. Marchal Petain regarded Maurras and Salazar as his mentors as his outline of the Vichy ideal makes quite clear:

"The state should be a strong power but limited in its functions through its recognition of such social groups as the family, the region, the professions, bodies and communities of every sort. It will no longer consider the workman as an animated tool and his work as merchandise, but will return to labour its material, moral and spiritual significance, and end the reign of economics and its immoral autonomy by submitting money and even work to the human being. Finally, it will try in every way not so much to improve the condition of the proletariat, as to abolish it, not only through fair distribution of the fruits of labour, but also by restoring the organic human elements in the old corporations.

HENRI PHILLIPE PETAIN

Born on May 24th 1856 was appointed a French commander and chief in the army in 1917, and was later made a Marshal. Considered to be one of Frances' greatest war heroes, he was one of the popular people in the history of France. Due to his success on the battlefield he was appointed War minister in the cabinet. Petain was sent to Spain as the French ambassador to Franco, when the war began he was recalled to France by Premier Paul Reynaud in order to "bolster French morale." Petain took over and immediately suspended the "French" masonic constitution of the Republic and proceeded in his plan of a French National Revolution.

It is documented fact that most of the French Nation favoured the idea of an Armistice and were overjoyed when Petain took over and quickly made this offer to Hitler. The Vichy Government was never really given full power by the German occupiers, and this was most probably one of their greatest errors. Petain did not want France to become a second class German satellite state but a full partner in the Axis. The National Revolution was a response to this fear of the all pervading decadence that was spreading throughout Europe in the years preceding the War. The Vichy regime asked for the French peoples help in the War against immorality, vice, liberalism, corruption, international Jewry and everything that endangered France.

Petain realized the important role of the Church in society and demanded that the Crucifix should return to the classroom and that no Jew should teach French children. In return the Church steadfastly supported the Vichy regime and even today refuses to admit that it supported the wrong side.

THE RETURN TO THE LAND

Petain believed that no family can truly remain moral and true whilst they were living in Cities where sin is all around to corrupt the youth. Therefore huge tax incentives were given to large families to return to the land and begin to buy their own property and begin to work the land. The idea of a Nation of farms was central to the National Revolutionary ideal.For if families own their own land and their own houses then the responsibility of the State is less. The Vichy ideal was not a Totalatarian State but a Corporatist Nation made up of representatives of the Nation.

Another view that Petain strongly adhered to was that Freemasonry and Jewry had conspired to de-feminise women, knowing full well that how a Nations women behave has a great influence on the male population. (ie if a woman has few morals then the life of the family is in danger) Therefore huge tax benefits were made to families where the mother remained at home to ensure that the children were looked after in the correct way, without having to worry about the curse of usury.

THE END OF A DREAM

Eventually the allies were to defeat the Axis powers and many people have said that this goes to prove that the people did not support the Vichy state. Then how do they explain the forty five thousand volunteers who remained faithful in the Milice? One of the main reasons for the small support De Gaulle had amongst the population was due to the error of the Nazis who offered the release of French POW's in return for French workers going to work in German factories, a move which caused a lot of resentment due to the sacrifices French people were already making for the National Revolution. As stated before, if the Vichy regime had been made a full partner amongst the Axis things may have been very different.

The vengeance of the allied armies was merciless, women were raped and any women thought to have supported the Axis were beaten and humiliated in view of the public in a "democratic" show of power. The amount of people murdered by communists at the end of the War was frightening, and all under the watchful eye of the wonderful allies who after all were fighting against barbarity and for a peaceful world. (weren't they?)

We must never forget the ideas that Marshal Petain was fighting for and the love that he held for his people and his Country.

Despite fifty years of propaganda, how often do we hear the French people apologize for their War time activities? They have nothing to be ashamed of, except perhaps not giving a great man more support in his time of need, those men who fought for the France of Petain, not De Gaulle, are the real heroes of the French Nation, and this issue of Final Conflict is dedicated to the memories of all those who fought for the real idea of a "free France."

THE PAUL TOUVIER STORY.

The story of Paul Touvier is a tragic one indeed he was born on April 3 1915 in the Maritime Alps. Always a sincere Patriot, Touvier joined the French paramilitary Police known as the Milice, in Lyons. On 20th April 1994 Paul Touvier was sentenced to life imprisonment. In reality he was sentenced to death, being eighty years old and suffering from cancer. The reason that Touvier was sentenced to death are as follows: a top member of the Milice was murdered, the Gestapo ordered Touvier to execute thirty Jewish prisoners in revenge for the murder. Now most people would simply have carried out the orders and merely accept that their job is to follow orders.

However, Touvier felt that it was inhumane to take revenge on the prisoners for the crimes of others so he pleaded for the lives of the prisoners.

Such were the efforts of Touvier that out of thirty prisoners he was able to save the lives of twenty three, an amazing feat and one which you would think that the War Crimes courts would appreciate. But no, due to the fact that seven Jews were executed Touvier is to die in prison.

When the allies invaded the majority of the Militia fled to Germany, knowing that they could expect no justice under the Zionist leviathan hiding under the cloak of "democracy." However Touvier decided to stay in his beloved France and take his chances there.

He was soon captured and arrested, immediately sentenced to death, Touvier was able to escape and made for the sanctuary of the Church. It is rumored that he contacted the Fraternity of Notre Dame de la Merci, a fraternity founded to help prisoners caught in the last months of the War.[in a spiritual sense.]

Paul Touvier was then to spend the rest of his life hiding in various Monasteries under the protection of the Church. However in 1971 Touvier was eventually granted an official pardon by President of the French Republic Georges Pompidou. The Jews were enraged, unable to come out and live like the free man he was Touvier remained in semi-hiding for fear of assassination by Zionists or leftists.

The pardon was reversed in 1981 due to pressure by the usual enemies of mankind and Touvier was forced to hide in a Traditionalist Catholic Monastry where eventually his illness got the better of him. Touvier was arrested in hospital and imprisoned.

This is one of the saddest of the "War Crimes" cases as it is obvious that Touvier is an innocent man and yet the Talmudic thirst for vengeance knows no boundaries.

THE HIDDEN DANGERS OF THE NEW AGE MOVEMENT

Ask the majority of Nationalists about the various enemies of our people and our ideology, and most thinking Nationalists would be able to give examples of who they are and what they believe. However there is one exception: for "some" reason various Nationalist organisations seem reluctant to inform their membership of one of the most dangerous movements that is spreading amongst our people: the "New Age".

The New Age has its roots in Hinduism. Hinduism knows no authoritiative creeds. It is possible to believe that there is one God, or many gods, or that there is no god at all and still be a Hindu. Nor are there any prescribed standards of conduct. Hinduism may be described as a social system based upon semi-religious principles, rather than a religion as those in the West understand it.

To say that the belief that there is a God is not binding upon Hindus is not to assert that there are no gods in Hindu beliefs, in fact there are many. A Hindu must simply believe in Karma and Transmigration, (in other words " a man reaps what he sows" because of reincarnation.) however it is rare to find a Hindu who believes in these two principles without the relation to a divine being.

The earliest Hindu sacred book is the "Rig-Veda" which consists of over a thousand hymns in praise of the gods. The divinities praised, some eighty in number, are simply personifications of natural forces, ie earth, wind, fire etc.

Despite the large amount of gods that the Hindus worship, after a few centuries there came a name to represent all the gods as one, this "being" became known as "Brahman". Eventually the people came to believe that everything except Brahman is an illusion (maya). Therefore, if taken to its conclusion, it matters not to a Hindu who is running his country since all phenomenal things are illusory and unreal.

The New Age

When people hear the words "New Age " they immediately think of crystals, mediums and CD's of sounds from the womb, however what they don't understand is that they are probably talking about their next door neighbour.

New Age has succeeded so well in the West because it has exchanged its Indian robes for respectable business suits. Moving from East to West under the names of "self-help" and "expanded consciousness" but rarely under the guise of a religion.

Whether through politics, medicine, ecology, education, psychology, nutrition, entertainment, business or science, the New Age movement has heavily influenced the way "westerners" think about themselves and the world in which they live. Words like "channeling, meditation, centering and visualisation" are now heard regularly on television.

The New Age movement represents a loose coalition of people and organisations. In the "New age Media International New Consciousness Directory" it gives the addresses of over 10,000 movements involved with New Age in the USA and Canada. Under the guise of helping management "cope with stress" they are invited (coerced) into attending self help groups and are taught Hinduistic meditation techniques.

Although they do not share a common structure, they do share a common philosophy. These can be listed in the following three sub headings.

- The Occult: astrology, the cabbala, channeling, aura clairvoyance and reincarnation.
- Psychotechniques:creative visualization, positive thinking, yoga etc.
- Naturism: nature therapy, geo-biology, green movement, diet etc.

As explained, the New Agers do not actually believe in a god as such but simply have names for elements. This pantheistic belief leads to the proclamation that "god is all, and all is god". Once again we see in full view the French Revolutionary inspired deification of man. Famous actress and leading promoter of the New Age, Shirley Maclaine was quoted as saying "Each soul is its own God. You must not worship anyone or anything other than self. For you are God" She continues: "the tragedy of the human race is that we have forgotten that we are all divine."

The New Age belief in "Brahman" means that their aim in life is to be able to reach a higher state of consciousness, to be able to open the "third eye" that they state is within us all. It opens when we have reached this higher state of consciousness through learning or drugs (Nationalists will recognise this belief as being one and the same as Freemasonry). Think about the seal on the back of the U.S dollers, it has always been the symbol of the occult.

Mediums and Channeling

To see the attempts by the State to push this new belief we only have to look at the way in which mediums are being pushed by the media. Often seen as "quaint" or simply as a joke by others, this is nothing more than a return to witchcraft and the occult. In the last ten years the number of mediums or channels in the Los Angeles area has risen from two people to one thousand.

People may laugh at the "Mystic Meg" types, but people like this are making spiritualism acceptable to the mainstream audience, children who watch this trash are going to want to know more about mysticism due to the spiritual vacuum that is apparant in this country. How often do we see films and television programmes where the "white witch " is the "goody" fighting against the nasty evil parents etc?

New Age group therapy.

The way in which the New Age works in regard to peer pressure is very interesting indeed. A group of about twenty people live in each others pockets for a period of about five days. In this time they are expected to confess all their inner feelings, doubts, worries, and guilt. This is followed by a torrent of critcism from the other members of the group with the person who has confessed unable to justify or defend his actions.

Now, there is nothing wrong with an organic group, sharing problems and attempting to iron out difficulties: ie families, and community guild stuctures, but when a group is brought together at random with no responsibilities the participants are cut off from the outside world and are encouraged to engage in irrational outbursts of emotion.

The All Seeing Eye of New Age.

Always mention FC when sending off to adverts featured in FC.

Obviously, after such an experience the participant is full of complexes because he realises that everything he says and does is being monitored and judged by the rest of the group. Shut out from the outside world the group opinion becomes the only certainty.

Carl Rogers, the main promoter of this style of "therapy" (brainwashing) admits: "sensitivity training is a means of altering the basic personality of an individual". Imagine how many people have attended these groups and the effect it has made on their perception of life?

YOGA

Once again we have something here that is seen as something harmless.and yet Yoga is anything but harmless.

There are various types of Yoga, yet all of them are a danger to the participant. For instance: Mantra Yoga is the chanting of a Hindu god over and over and over again. The aim is to "invoke" the spirit to aid the person to escape "Samsara" (endless reincarnation) For while in Europe, reincarnation is seen as something "fashionable to believe in", in India it is seen as a curse on mankind.

The word Yoga means to yolk, (ie to yolk with Brahma) what they are saying is that yoga is a means to become closer to Brahma and thus escape the terrible circle of reincarnation.

One of the worlds leading Gurus named Rajneesh, formed a style of Yoga now used all across the world named "dynamic meditation". This consists of frenetic dancing and screaming for about an hour, followed by absolute silence and meditation. The aim of this is to free "Kundalini", a serpent that is supposedly curved around the base of the spine.(anyone who has seen the statue of Kundalini will see a beast with snakes coming out of his hair and wearing a necklace of human eyeballs) Many of our children are now being taught yoga at school, especially the "cobra" position as it is supposed to aid relaxation. Ninety per cent of YMCA's now teach Yoga.

THE MECCA OF NEW AGE.

The New Age is supposedly a new religion bringing about the "brotherhood" of man, a religion of peace where mankind treats all men as his brother and no one shall be without, how true is this statement? As we have seen India is the Spiritual "Mecca" of the New Age movement. If this is the example of a New Age Nation then we are in serious trouble. Apart from China, no other country cares less about its fellow man than India. There is no concept of social justice in India. The poor are simply left to starve and die because if a fellow Hindu were to help them then they would be messing with their "Karma", thereby making it less likely for the person to reach "samsara". Therefore in that beautiful country, which could feed the world by itself if it had the power, simply allows its citizens to die because of its religion.

WHO IS FOOLING WHO??

The New Age travellers claim that the system is against them because of their religious beliefs (in fact it is because they are escaping the usury of the rat race) whereas in fact the "powers that be" have been behind the religion all along.

In the meditation rooms at the U.N. buildings in New York and Washington DC, we can see the links between New Age and the New World Order. Both of these buildings were the forerunners of the "Temple Of Understanding" on the banks of the Potomac in Washington. The guarded entrance to this building, shrouded in semi-darkness opens onto a space, thirty feet long, with a solitary shimmering yellow light on an altar. At the far end of the room there is a low railing where only the "chosen few" are allowed to enter. On the wall is a mural, on first glance seemingly a cluster of geometric designs, but when studied closely it takes the form of the all seeing eye. The underlying purpose of the Temple was revealed in its plan with the all seeing eye, faceted like a diamond in the central dome of the building, reflecting the rays of the sun through its wings that represent the six world "faiths"-Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, Confucianism and Christianity. Its aim? "To achieve the recognition of the underlying oneness of Man." There we have the answer to our question "what is New Age?"-a religion that is attempting to eradicate the differences between religions without openly attacking any of them. A new Faith, syncretist and pantheist, a religion with no concrete beliefs for a future race of people with no history, heritage or links with their homeland. A new religion for a New World Order!

Nationalism.

Sadly it seems that even some Nationalists are falling into the New Age trap in a search for a Spiritual side to their beliefs. Certain magazines have featured articles that are nothing but New Age ideology wrapped up in a racist manner. Just because something can be seen as racist it does not make it right, and these people are playing with fire. In a recent "glossy" American white rock magazine there were adverts for books that were preaching pure gnostism.

We are in possession of information about a number of foreign Nationalists involved in some really serious occult practices, which we will print if we get undeniable proof. Open your eyes to the threat of the New Age.

Not only is dabbling with the occult and New Age intrinsically wrong, it will turn potential recruits and supporters away. It also leaves such organisations open to ridicule and blackmail.

MARGARET SANGER: ENEMY OF NATIONALISM

Margaret Sanger devoted her entire life to the cause of "birth control". Despite the fact that she came from a family of eleven children, she fought tooth and nail to encourage mankind to adopt her ideas on contraception, abortion and the idea of eugenics.

Coming from a poor background she married William Sanger, a man born into a wealthy family. She soon climbed safely away from the "shame" she felt due to her poor upbringing. Sanger soon became involved in the Liberal Club and became close friends with Emma Goldman, the famed Socialist agitator and supporter of "voluntary motherhood". Sanger joined the Socialist Party and regularly wrote for the Party newspaper "The Call".

Another strong influence on Sanger was Ellen Key, author of the Feminist "Bible" The Woman Movement. The major point made in this book is its hatred of marriage. Key felt all marriage should be used for is the sexual satisfaction of the woman. She is quoted as saying that a marriage that is not immediately sexually satisfying for the wife should result in a divorce without delay. She advocated "voluntary association" between sexual partners. It is clear to see that the real enemy was the fundamental root of Civilisation : the Family.

Planned Parenthood (PP) attempts to erode Family values through Sex Education. It claims to have reduced teen pregnancies whereas in fact after two decades of planned parenthood there has been a 90% increase in teen pregnancy and a 230% increase in teen abortions!

Since the idea of "recreational sex" (ie sex for the sake of sex rather than for wishing to bring a child into the world) was spread by Sanger, divorce rates have leapt in number. In the early part of this Century couples chose to work through their differences rather than divorce. However as Sanger's ideas of promiscuity gained ground the tragedy of divorce was considered as an everyday occurence. In 1910 one in eleven marriages ended in divorce, in 1994 one in two ended in divorce.

Perhaps the best (or worst) example of the terror of PP and the ideas of Margaret Sanger taken to their logical conclusion is China. Planned Parenthood totally supports the vile regime in China where women can only have one child and are forced to abort any other child conceived.

But there are other Nations that PP have destroyed: to take one such example...

Singapore

Singapore took on the PP idea that small Families lead to prosperity, but in 1987 Government officials had to revert to old policies as they were actually becoming extinct due to their non-reproductive birthrate.

Indonesia

In Bali, village meetings are held in which a roll call is made, each Man answers whether or not he and his wife are using birth control. The villages with the highest number of users are rewarded with food supplements from the Government, if the village does not receive the food the blame is laid at the feet of those who don't use contraception.

Korea

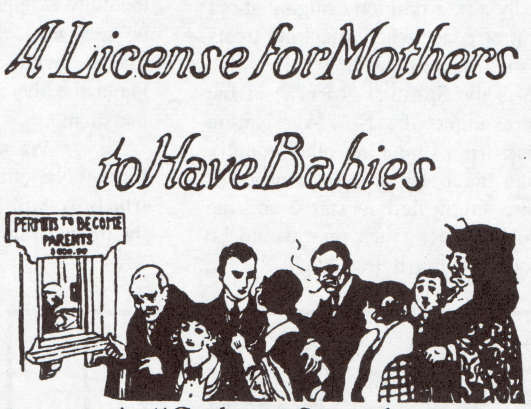
In Korea free medical care and education allowances are given to two-child families providing that one of the parents has been sterilised

Thailand

Here technical assistance in farm production is only given to those who use contraception.

One of the main reasons for this forced "family planning" can be traced back to 1974, when Henry Kissenger pressed the need for "U.S leadership in population matters." The American Government were afraid that emerging population growth amongst the Third World Nations could eventually raise security problems for the USA. (What this really meant was that the USA were afraid that they would no longer be able to control the Third World through multinational corporations as they have done for the last fifty years.) The USA began to use intermediaries like the "United Nations Fund For Population Activities" and the International Planned Parenthood Federation (IPPF) to subvertly carry out their programme of murder as the USA cannot work openly in these Nations.

DO YOU CONSIDER THIS TO BE NATIONALISM?



A "Code to Stop the Overproduction of Children"

Proposed by Margaret Sanger

Based on Common Sense Instead of Sentiment

Therefore what we have is certain Nationalists amongst us supporting PP which was invented by a Socialist pervert surrounded by Jews. We see the Zionist dominated American Government as the major advocates of PP and the major financers of the movement are the very same multinationals that we rightly loathe so much !!

What about the "Population Boom?"

The answer to that is: "What population boom?" Although Nationalists are far less likely to fall for propaganda than Joe Public, they are still capable of falling hook, line and sinker for a tale if it fits what in with their world-wide view of things. (ie that other races are growing whilst the white race is failing to replace itself, a problem caused by Europe accepting Sangers views more readily than the Third World) .

POPULATION: THE FACTS

It is estimated that the population for the next century will be 10 billion. At present humans occupy 1% of the Earth's total land surface. So by the end of the next century we will occupy 2%. Also this does not take into account the AIDS plague in Africa.

Although it is difficult to believe it or not, but the entire worlds population could fit side-by-side on the Isle of Wight! Not only that but the Worlds population could be housed in the State of Texas with 1,300 sq feet of room per person!! Aristotle worried about the overpopulation of the world in 500BC!

"So what about Resources?" you may ask. It is a fact that many of the less developed countries are capable of feeding 18 billion people which is more than 3 times the worlds population. India alone, through its river valleys could produce enough food to feed the whole world. Look at the way the EEC is paying Irish Farmers not to produce food and the amount of food being held in storage by the EEC.

EUGENICS

There is no doubt that the most worrying thing about Nationalism today is the fact that a certain amount of Nationalists have vague sympathies towards eugenics.

Many Nationalists do not realise where these ideas originated, only that they were put into practice in National-Socialist Germany, and mainly came from the ideas of Fredrich Nietzche. The very idea that man is merely "another animal" fighting for survival in the jungle of life is farcical. The fact that man has a soul puts pay to that idea straight from the outset. As for the "strong survives" theory: that is the exact opposite of what true Nationalists should believe. The real lover of his people protects all the Nation, the weak, the disabled the poor, the old and the unborn. The real Nationalist slogan should be the strong protects.

It is well worth looking at how this bizarre doctrine became acceptable.The people who support eugenics do so through a misguided idea that it will enable the creation of a race of "thoroughbreds" (to quote Sanger). Indeed there is no doubt that Sanger was a fanatical racist, but hers was not a racism in the sense of the word that we understand, it was the materialist racism that all that matters is what a person brings financially to the world.

Some Nationalists may stupidly support PP for Third World countries, (and some even abortion to our shame) thinking in some mis-guided way that this will help in the fight against immigration. This is not the case, for a start look at who is pushing planned parenthood, almost every anti-White multi-national is involved because what they want is control. Control over us all, not just Whites not just Blacks but all people who are not considered economically viable.

Now we are getting the picture. Sanger's views on the Industrial Revolution are of great interest as she believed that it created a "sub-human class" in Britain (meaning factory workers) who are stupid and only able to breed and nothing else. It is for this reason that Sanger invented "Planned Parenthood". Not as a device to help mothers to distance the gaps between children but to discourage working class people from having large families in the hope that "more intelligent" (read middle class) families would breed more "useful" members of society. We easily see why such institutes as the Rockefeller Foundation have thrown so much money into organisations that support Sanger's ideas. Abortion and birth control are multi-million pound industries that are like a plague of Vampires: sucking the life blood out of the Nation and creating a life time of misery for our women.

Perhaps some people feel that Sanger only had a few people in mind when she spoke of " degenerates" ? However this is not the case at all. Sanger believed that 43% of drafted men had the mental capacity of twelve year olds and therefore would be candidates for sterilization. Therefore, if taken as a percentage, what she was saying was that almost half the population would be sterilized! Now, those Nationalists that support eugenics think about this: what makes you think that you are going to be one of the lucky few that survive the intelligence test ? Simply because you helped in the overthrow of power ? Think again. Remember that not only were Blacks for the chop but also those who make up the vast majority of our ranks, the White working class. Many of our members are these so called "underclass" factory workers or building-site labourers, does this make us lower than others simply because we use our hands rather than computers to make a living? Imagine going to a meeting of Patriots on a council estate and attempting to explain this trash!

The inward morality of the workers of this country is still intact to a large degree. Nobody is going to deny that there are a lot of bad people out there (even in our own ranks) but the answer is not eugenics, but a transformation of society through a Spiritual struggle and a State that makes the citizens feel that Patriotism, and sacrifice, on behalf of the Nation, is something to be valued and rewarded. At present why should people feel any duty towards a country that values everybody except those citizens that put the most into keeping the Nation running? It is these people that deserve the support of Nationalism, not plans , shrouded in long words, drawings of skulls and intelligence monitoring that are in reality a plan for the future genocide of our children.

The media continues to push the line that "unemployed mothers" (didn't these used to be called housewives ?) should only be allowed one child, or risk having any benefits stopped, therefore we now have a similer situation as the Third World Nations arising, i.e the State deciding how many children a family can have

A final comment, if you know a Family with a handicapped child ask them what they think of eugenics? Whilst the Jewish press publishes interviews with the very occasional parent that regrets having a handicapped child, about 95% of those parents asked say that the joy that one of these children brings to the world is worth any struggle that comes along with it. Just imagine if, as a parent and a Nationalist, you were to conceive a handicapped child ? Would you change your opinion ? Or would you sacrifice your child to the "all powerful State" like the Incas and Babylonian Pagans of yesteryear sacrificed their children to their false idols ?

VOICE YOUR OPINION !

If your Nationalist organization does not mention eugenics then find out why not Is there a "hidden plan" ? and if your organization does support eugenics then lobby the members and ensure that all members are aware of the groups disgusting agenda.

Eugenics, cuthanasia and abortion are all words that have no place in the vocabulary of Nationalists and we should not be frightened of making a stand over an issue that will lose us support and is so morally unjustifiable that we simply cannot just stand by and allow them to be accepted by some as an integral aspect of "our" ideology when it is in fact nothing more than an excuse for a war on the poor by the rich. We must ensure that we are not being led towards the "utopian" dream of Margaret Sanger and the followers of her perverted and sick ideology.

REVIEWS

BOOKS.

THE SECRET OF THE ZODIAC: by Julian Sterne.

The name Julian Sterne may not mean anything to Nationalists, but it is in fact a pseudonym for famed conspiracy expert Nesta Webster. This excellent novel, as would be expected, is based on the idea of a conspiracy to enslave the world.

Set between the wars, it tells the story of the battle between good and evil with the heroes Terence Kavanagh and Jimmy Brandon fighting bolshevists, tories and satanists galore.

The book highlights the links between the occult and political revolution, and is written in such a manner that even Auntie Hilda would enjoy it, and may even learn a few things in the meantime. When you consider the publicity given to books like the "Turner Diaries" and "Candidate for the Order" you would think that a book like this would be well known, yet it somehow seems to have slipped through the net. This book is now available from Rising Books, BCM ITP, London WC1N3XX (£8.80 INC P+P)

WHITE LIES-A conspiracy to promote violence in the city of Leeds.

Early in 1993 Tony White started drinking with Nationalists in Leeds city centre and from the very start he was out to promote violence. In order to make a name for himself, one day he appeared in the pub with a notebook he claimed to have stolen from the office of the Red paper "The Northern Star". He said that he was in the office with a friend who had a mailbox there. Considering that almost all of the mailboxes there were rented by the extreme left, one has to ask who was his friend and why were they friends? Also would a known Fascist be left alone in a Red office as he claimed?

Another problem was that several of those who discussed the issue described the fact that the book had been taken in a burglary. Max Madden in particular stressed this in the "Dispatches" programme.

Later on we have White attempting to sell machetes to young Nationalists to be used against SWP paper sellers. Fortunately the only youngster interested was warned off by a more experienced comrade.

The booklet continues and exposes White's links with Searchlight, the AFA and Special Branch. It also proves that he used a market stall in Leeds city centre to distribute his pirated porn movies and illegal "snuff" films. In spite of a Police raid on his flat he was never prosecuted for this offence. Leeds BNP went to great lengths to get evidence on White, for example they went through his rubbish bags and came up with a lot of evidence of his lowly deeds.

So here we have a Nationalist group exposing a Red/State agent without Larry O'Hara getting a look in. In "Green Anarchist"" (No 38) O'Hara reviews the booklet and comes across as quite bitter. In fact he goes as far as to attempt to smear the author of the booklet as an MI5 asset. As the author of the book puts it: "he is just trying to replace Gable as the authority on anti-Fascism....he is still an enemy, especially as he has close links to Red Action scum!" As for the smears: "his reasons seem to be because we have so effectively completed our own research and produced the goods on a known agent of the left/Searchlight. In effect we can start putting people like O'Hara out of business if we can do it more often." This booklet is avaliable from P.O Box BR10, Leeds, 13. (Blank postal order for £3.50)

Robot's Rebellion by DAVID ICKE

This book has caused a lot of controversy due to the fact that it contains excerpts from the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. The book is based on the conspiracy theory, ie that there is a plan to enslave the masses and turn us into brainwashed Zombies akin to Robots. It goes without saying that this is hardly news to Nationalists. However, Icke attacks the conspiracy from a completely different angle than ourselves. Whilst the book attacks many of the things that we attack, it is always done from a bizarre point of view. For whilst it is hinted that the Jews are responsible for certain ills in the world, the real culprits, according to Icke, are Grey Aliens! Icke believes that there is a secret Brotherhood of Aliens controlling the World (from Planet ZOG maybe?). Bizarre as it may seem a fair amount of information in this book is good and at least it is going to introduce certain people to the idea of the conspiracy theory who probably would never have known about it before. Not recommended (but don't tell the Aliens).

TELEVISION

Over The Rainbow.

This programme was about the struggle between Queers and the American Religious Right. The first half of the programme was mainly about the killing of a queer and how so many homo's came out and supported demonstrations about "justice". It really did take extreme discipline to not put my foot through the screen at some of the vile comments and views of those interviewed. One of the most noticeable things was the amount of Jews who were leaders of the queer groups. (surprise, surprise). You did not even have to look at the names as many of them made Woody Allen appear like an advert for the SS !!.

The second part of the show was far more interesting as it highlighted on two recent cases of "homophobia".
The first was a film called "Tongues Untied" which caused a storm mainly because it was funded by a government grant. This film centred mainly on Black queers and was highly blasphemous, this gave Jew-loving preachers like Jerry Falwell the opportunity to fleece Christians in the USA by going on an anti-queer "crusade".

The second case showed the heroic attempts by Baptists in Oregon to stop queers from distributing homo propaganda in Schools. This really showed how there are still large segments of Christians throughout the USA who are prepared to stand up and be counted. The queers said that the worst thing was the fact that the people were all working class. This goes to show that for every ten middle-class Liberals who swallow queer propaganda, there are one hundred working class people who will fight against it.

One queer leaders comments' on the attacks on their plans for schoolchildren were "they said Jews eat children and we seduce them" (well you said it.)

Eventually the queers won their battle, but many were obviously frightened by the increasingly militant approach by the Baptists, and these Christians promised that the battle was not over by a long way.

Power Rangers

What with the Power Rangers being the latest craze with children I decided (against my better judgement) to "look in" on the TV version, oh dear!!

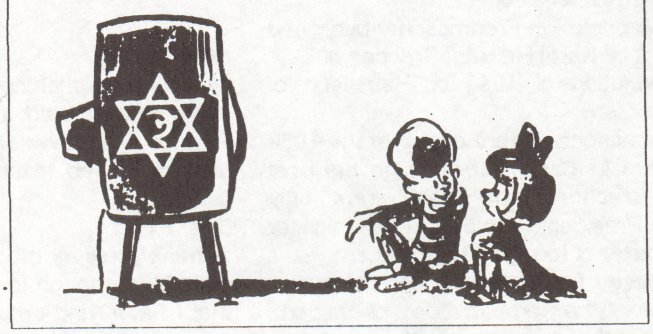
The "plot": A gathering of international "teens" was hijacked by the usual space-age aliens. The teens "chairperson" is a pretty blonde from where-else? Israel of course! (suprise, suprise)

Obviously the Power Rangers win and world peace is ensured (thank the Lord that we have the multi-racial politically correct power rangers to protect us from harm!!)

It was hardly a suprise that when the credits appeared it was the usual game of spot the Gentile.

All in all just more one-world trash imported from the USA achieving its aim of brainwashing "our" children and encouraging the playground "Brotherhood of Man" mentality.

What now sis, Julian Clary or Michael Barrymore?



MUSIC

Call of the Blood by DRESDEN

This tape has been very well advertised in American Nationalist journals. The idea is obviously to break away from Nationalist "rock" music and break into the "pop" scene. I have to be honest here and admit that the music did not appeal to me at all. Although there are a couple of good songs on the tape, in general it reminded me of bands like "Heaven 17" and "Level 42" which is not my cup of tea at all. Also there is a bit of a New Age feel to some of the lyrics such as "Dark Queen of decadence, quench my desire" I mean, where is that coming from? The idea behind the tape is very good indeed, and despite the fact that this tape doesn't really come off I hope that it is the first of many attempts by Nationalists to break into other forms of music. Avaliable from Life Rune Books, BCM 6089, London, WC1N3XX. Price: £6 inc Postage.

Sevizio Di by LONDINIUM SPQR

Serizio di Stato is, in the bands own words, a traditional rock track. The band handle their instruments well and the vocalist is very powerful. (you get the feeling that if your toes don't start tapping then he'll jump off the record and chin you one!!) For me though the B side "IL Vento" is a much better song. If this doesn't get you bouncing off the walls then you're a contender for loser of the month and you should get back to your Peters and Lee LP's. All in all a 7" well worth getting and it's avaliable from Tuono Records-see advert elsewhere in this issue.

Freedom or Death by KONKWISTA 88

There is no doubt that K88 are one of the most impressive bands in the Nationalist scene today. This, there first album from 1984, is a real humdinger. Every track is superb. After hearing this I had to suck on four boiled sweets at once cause my ears were still popping!! It's hard to pick out the best song on the albuin but if pushed I would have to say it's "Sunwheel" which is a right belter. If you have any doubts about Polish music then don't. This band are top notch and the quality of the production is excellent. This album is avaliable from FC for: CD £12 and the Tape £6. Please add £1 postage. (£2 Rest of the world.)

The Fight Goes On. by BOUND FOR GLORY

At last! The new album by BFG is out and what a classic it is. Eleven tracks of rock/Oi with superb guitar work that would put Metallica to shame! It's a credit to the band that every time they release an new album it's better than the last one. It is difficult to pick out favourite songs but "Our voice is stronger" really stands out as a thigh slapper, also the song in memory of Ian Stuart "Moment of Serenity" is a classic. Along with the Centurion album I think that this is the best CD that I have heard this year A must buy!

VIDEOS

THE CLINTON CHRONICLES plus THE GAY AGENDA.

If we are ever going to get our message across to the public then our approach must become more professional. One of the best examples of the way ahead is this quite superb video on the life of Bill Clinton. Despite being made by Nationalists is comes across like a World in Action documentary (but without the lies!) The video goes into detail about Clintons drug running and the way he took his inner circle of friends into Washington with him partly it seems to make sure that they would not "spill the beans" on Bill and his wife. Alongside these revelations it gives evidence on the extra-marital affairs of the president (and also his wife). Even certain Women accused of affairs are interviewed on the video and also the relatives of former friends of Clinton who after attempting to expose his dirty deals died in, to say the least, suspicious circumstances. It even details how Clinton led anti-American rallies in his time as a student in England. The video is made very well indeed and should be watched by as many people as possible. It is produced in such a way that it could be shown at Nationalist gatherings or even by Auntie Hilda (after she has finished reading "The secret of the Zodiac") After this film is the vile expose of the queer movement in the USA. This film really is quite sickening, and yet is vital viewing as it shows what goes on at the queer parades in America and how queers are not "born queer" but are in fact perverted in the same way as someone into masochism or sadism Avaliable from FREEDOM VIDEOS, Box 1 Forest House, Liss Forest, Liss, Hampshire GU33 . (£14.99 IN P&P)

Salute Final Conflict!

thanks very much for FC. The magazine contained many interesting political articles! Excellent!

My small comment on 'Freemasonry - Why the Fuss?': Freemasonry is a big problem not a small one.

In Slovakia there were three books on Freemasonry published in 1991: "Evolution of Zionism" by Karel Halbich; "Princes of Evil" by Robert Helebrandt; "Revolution of 1989 or Repetition of History?" by Miroslav Dolejsi.

The last book is about Freemasonry before and after the 1989 revolution against Communism in Czechoslovakia. In the post revolution government of Czechoslovakia there were only Freemasons: Vaclav Havel - President; Vaclav Klaus - minister of finance; Jiri Diensbier - minister of foreign affairs, etc.

Since 1992 these books have been forbidden and publishers can be taken to court for the propagation of racism, anti-semitism, fascism etc. Just three years after the revolution against communism!!!!

R.,Bratislava, Slovakia.

Dear Sir,

I received the edition of FC which carried an article warning Birmingham NF members about the re-appearance of the seedy and suspect Peter Marriner on the Nationalist scene. I had not heard of him before but out of interest I gave the magazine to a BNP member who was then going to pass it onto their Birmingham organiser. I didn't think any more about it.

On the 15th of July I attended a BNP regional meeting in the Midlands where the guest speaker was? Peter Marriner! As Victor Meldrew says "I could not believe it!" and I did not connect it until a couple of members started questioning the organiser about the party's stance on homosexuality. The response from two party members was that what happens behind closed doors is the individuals' own business!

During his speech, Marriner even managed to say he thought ex-Tory Harvey Proctor was set up in the 'rent boy whipping scandal' by anti-Nationalists.

When I tried questioning the organiser, he was defensive and said he didn't know why Final Conflict had written what it had and I should ask them.

Hello FC,

Many thanks for the latest FC and for the books I ordered which I'm looking forward to reading. Enc. is another order, plus a copy of an article by Nick Toczek which appeared in Lobster. You'll be pleased to hear that Edinburgh West End is full of your stickers. Good to see people out spreading the word,

Yours Faithfully,
A.L., Edinburgh, Scotland.

Comrades,

I was pleased to see an obituary for Cayo Evans in FC 8. He was a man we can all learn much from in many ways. Whilst being serious about his Nationalism he was at the same time (what is generally called) a 'character' who bred horses - and is famed for riding one through a pub, enjoyed a friendly drink, played the accordion, was respected by the community, and was contemptuous of liberals who sought to sell out his Nation or 'tone down' Nationalism to further their careers - a la Plaid Cymru.

As well as suffering for his Nation he also knew great personal tragedy, as his daughter was severely handicapped after a swimming accident and his son committed suicide after falling out with his girlfriend.

It is right that FC paid him tribute. We have all lost a comrade in Julian Cayo Evans. Let his name join the roll call of other lost comrades.

Er Budd Cymru,
G.H., Caerdydd, Cymru.

FC,

I was watching the Formula One Grand Prix and the commentator said that Damon Hill was in Third Position. Strange, I've never seen him at any meetings. Pole Position was also mentioned. Is this a branch in Poland?

T., W. London.

Dear FC,

thank you very much for the sample issue #8 of FC, which you were kind enough to send to me. I am enclosing some literature that I have lying around. Most of it is self-explanatory. The only thing I have to comment on is the Bo Gritz newsletter: I think he is a phony. When Randy Weaver had his standoff against the Feds, Bo Gritz wore a wire into his cabin with an agreement that he would try to convince Weaver to come out. Failing that, he was going to make sure the guns were out of reach and say the code word "Alaska", so the Feds could storm the place.

One of the main reasons why I'm writing is concerning your article on Cayo Evans. I have recently taken an interest in the Welsh language. I am wondering whether you could put me in touch with someone who could assist me in my study of it and provide incentive through letter writing and perhaps help me in obtaining some Welsh language resources,

For Christ, Race and Nation,

Comrades,

I thought I'd drop you a line after reading your excellent piece on Mussolini. I recently read in Spike Milligan's book 'Where Have All the Bullets Gone?' (Vol. 5 of his war memoirs) of his being in Rome at the end of WW2. Whilst staying in an Italian's house, the daughter tells Spike " . . . during Mussolini's regime a woman was safe to walk anywhere after dark, even during the German occupation, but now" during 'allied' occupation " it was terrible, she couldn't take the drunkeness and lechery." The next morning her 12 year old brother found his pretty 21 year old sister dead. She had taken her life rather than face the "lechery" of the victorious allies. Just thought you'd be interested,

P.T., Glasgow, Scotland.

Dear Staff,

I've recently read FC via a Comrade. I'm incarcerated for another three years for beating a 'homo' and now I've been subjected to live around them! The institution I'm in now is lenient with mail so I request that you send your next issue if that's possible. May God Bless,

God, Race, Nation,
J.K., P.o.W., Minnesota, USA.

Ed: We get a lot of requests from prisoners for FCs and other 'educational' material, hence our appeal for donations for this end (see 'FC Prisoner Welfare' on page 4).

Dear FC,

could you obtain for me 'like-new' copies of: The East Came West by Peter Huxley Blythe (Caxton Printers 1964) and Albert Speer, the End of a Myth by Matthias Schmidt (NY 1984), PDM., Belluno, Italy.

ED: Can any readers help with this request?

MIRTH #2 OUT NOW

FOR YOUR COPY of the funniest read since The Diary of Anne Frank send 50p & SAE to (£1 overseas): Mirth c/o BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX. Cheques should be made payable to "BOADICEA M. C." not Mirth or FC. Go on - treat y'self.

CRUCIFIX BAN

Tens of thousands of Bavarians have held rallies against the ruling of a Bavarian court which banned the crucifix from classrooms. The reason was "religious liberty". I just hope the people of Bavaria fight this all the way, otherwise the humanists and liberals will use this as a platform to attack traditional values across the board.

As for religious liberty, when we visit muslim countries we have to obey their laws and toe the line, so "visitors" to Europe (even if at the moment they consider themselves as permanent guests) should follow our laws whilst here. Unfortunately our lawmakers are too liberal for their own good!

RIGHT ROYAL MESS

The Royals are a right mess. 'Di' and 'Fergie' are viewed by most as parasites who holiday for 80% of the year. I know some Nationalists who are Royalists who say the institution must survive even if the people are liberal, and I know the masons want to destroy all royalty - the queen is now a citizen of Europe - but to my mind the only way out of this mess is for the Nations that make up the British Isles to become Republics.

I was reading in a magazine about Welsh republicans and Nationalists who rally each year at Cilmeri, the spot where the last true Prince of Wales Llewelyn was killed. This shows how republicans can venerate historic royalty whilst opposing the farce today.

THE TRUTH AT LAST

In his Diary in the Times magazine Alan Watkins remarked how the murder ("execution") of William Joyce "was wrong" given that he "illicitly held a British passport". More eyebrow-raising still was Alan's honesty when it came to Joyce's broadcasts. He "was something of a hero among the working classes" and gave "accurate accounts of British loses" as opposed to the BBC.

Dear oh dear - does that mean the BBC told fibs, half-truths and war propaganda? One was given the impression that only Herr Goebbels did that. Is Mr. Watkins a closet revisionist?

GOOD NEWS

The U.S. Federal government has agreed to pay £2 million to Randy Weaver and his family. Three years ago Weaver had a shoot out with the Feds after they tried and failed to get him to be a grass on "White supremacist" group - Aryan Nations after framing him by getting an informer to persuade him to sell a pair of illegal sawn-off shotguns.

The payment comes after Randy Weaver sued the govt. for $200 million for killing his son Sam, who was cut down whilst fleeing back to his dad after a Marshall shot his dog, and his wife Vicki, who died when the siege of their home started the next day, as she stood in the cabin door cradling their ten month old daughter Elisheba.

A family friend, Kevin Harris, was also shot during the 11 day siege during which FBI snipers were told they "could and should" shoot on sight.

I'm glad Randy is getting compensation - but nothing can bring back his wife and son, and nothing can disguise the fact that if you step out of line in America today, the State can and will kill you. As at Waco, it is crystal clear that the U.S. State wanted a group of "undesirables" out of the way. If supporters, neighbours and friends hadn't shown up at Ruby Ridge, Idaho, near the Weaver's cabin, who's to say that any of them would have survived?

THE RON AWARDS

The winner of this issue's thumbs up award is singer Chrissie Hynde. Get this:

". . . how can a celebrated militant vegetarian animal rights campaigner condone the death penalty for humans? She takes a deep breath " I know it's unfashionable for people of my generation and after to uphold any religious principles, but I agree with the Muslim fundamentalists that certain crimes should not be allowed. I think religious principles are the only ones worth fighting and dying for. Blasphemy should be punished because it's utterly disrespectful, and when respect and order go out the window, you end up with a society like the one we have now - 80 year olds getting beaten up and murdered for their money, children being sexually abused. I think the scum who do that sort of thing should be lined up against the wall and shot" Wow.

AGONY? IT WAS A HOLOCAUST!

I was shocked to read in a newspaper that Maureen Lipman is playing the part of an 'agony aunt' in a comedy series on TV. It's strange that they should pick a Jewess when virtually 100% of agony aunts (you know the ones: pro-abortion, pro-sodomite, pro-infidelity, pro-promiscuity, in fact pro-every thing unnatural) are Jewish. How unlike the media to stick to the facts. What's more, I've read that in the series she has a poof lodger and a black 'lover'. Right on!

LIBERAL UNEASE

Oh how the liberals squirmed when the Black Separatist 'Nation of Islam' led a mass march through Washington, DC. After all Louis Farrakhan, their leader, is "anti semitic". So the liberals had a choice, defend the Jews and seem anti-Black, or defend the Blacks and seem anti-Jewish. What fun!

Seriously though it was good to see the Separatist Nol lead nigh on a million Black men through Washington. It was a heavy blow for the Jewish-led Black liberals. White Nationalists should take comfort in the fact that the Nol is against Race-mixing. What a refreshing change!

JUSTICE AT LAST

Let's hope we've heard the last racist rantings about O.J. Simpson getting the justice he deserves. I mean, the man is so obviously innocent it's a joke. Just because his 'brothers' in the jury let him off should not put any doubts in our minds. I just hope he does find the real killer (probably an evil White racist)!

FC readers will be happy to know that O.J.'s 'brother' solicitor is the very same 'brother' who got fellow "Black" (?) Michael Jackson off. Jackson was clearly another poor (?) Black victim of a racist frame up. Rumours of Rose- mary West putting on some boot polish and getting parole are as yet unconfirmed.

WHAT A WIND UP!

News of an armed robber in Italy not wearing a mask because he has AIDS and cannot go to jail under Italian law should not surprise Nationalists. Ferdinando Attanasio, 37, is usually held for three days at most before being let out. When will the liberals learn?

BLACK WYMMIN ONLY

Council Tax payers of North Tyneside are having their money wasted on a "Womens' Bus" that tours around dishing out info to wymmin. Some 'sessions' are "for Black women, that is, all non-white women Asian, Chinese, African & Carribean" (sic). Recently a White woman Olivia Laidler was ordered off the bus by White employees as only non-White 'citizens' were allowed on!

HMM, I WONDER . . .

So, a bomb and a train derailment in the U.S. all claimed by the "Sons of Gestapo". I wonder if they're in cahoots with Meibion Glyndwr (Sons of Glyndwr) the Welsh Nationalist firebombers?

Seriously though, can anyone doubt this is the handiwork of the Feds seeking to stamp on the Militias, Nationalists and Separatists in the US? We should keep a close eye on developments, especially as our Jewish Home Secretary and our Prime Minister (who's wed to a Jewess) want to start a British 'FBI' now that the "cold war" is over and IRA are no longer bombing. No doubt the British 'Feds' along with MI5 etc. will soon "uncover" an "extreme right wing" terrorist plot here (read 'New Tactics by the Secret State' in FC8). We must all be vigilant.

WHITE IS BLACK

Mega-bucks Oprah Winfrey, Black US talk show queen has, on a show about Whites with Black blood (ie. with ancestors who Race mixed), claimed that 10% of U.S. Whites have Negro blood! No doubt this is the same 10% the poofs say are 'queer'!

Just where do these loonies get their figures from? No doubt amongst TV producers, executives etc. 10% (or more) are part Negro poofs, but that doesn't reflect on normal society.

SAINT FREDDY

So Freddy Mercury sings from the grave with a new batch of songs headed by "This Could be Heaven" (or something similar). What a joke that a skinny AIDS riddled faggot on death's doorstep should sing about heaven!

THE ETERNAL . . . AGENT

Whilst enjoying a foaming ale in a public house recently (for research purposes of course) a loud gentleman started pontificating about the football agent Eric Hall (who has a column in the Sunday People and is football's biggest agent). Hardly a Sunday goes by without him mentioning the fact that he's a Jew. He's disliked by 'Joe Bloggs' who sees the game being taken over by spivs.

Anyway, this bloke starts shouting about Hall and the fact that all football agents are Jews. I waited for the shouts of "anti semite!" or "holocaust!" or even an uncomfortable silence. Instead there was a roar of approval from around the pub. Everyone wanted to add their opinion on how 'cocky' Jews had become. Time and time again I heard "I mean I feel sorry for them because of the holocaust, but . . ." before an explosion of "anti semitic" rhetoric that made Arnold Leese sound like a liberal! After laying low for many years more Jews are now flaunting their "religion" which is a big mistake as it gives rise to the latent anti-Jewish feeling that does exist in the British peoples.

Staying in the Sunday People you'll find Vernon Coleman the Jewish "agony aunt". As I mentioned in the Maureen Lipman piece, virtually all agony aunts are Jewish. Just as it's worrying to think of all the people lying on Jewish psychiatrists couches (they did after all invent psychiatry) telling them every detail of their life, we now have the agony aunts encouraging every kind of perversity under the guise of moral guidance. The thought of abused children phoning these people for help is enough to make you cry. What happens? Do they get looked after by one of Esther Rantzens "helpers" who we've all heard about? For the sake of our children - wake up White man! It's time to stop the rot and fight back!

BULLDOG JACKSON

I was pleased to see FC's friend and lefty thespian (no - I said thespian) MP Glenda Jackson jumping on the band-wagon to stop the French buying (part of) Dover port. How Glenda must have hated standing alongside the "xenophobic" types determined to keep part of England English. Still, anything to get a few votes, even if a One Worlder has to betray her beliefs.

A DIFFICULT ROLE?

I recently saw "A Perfect World" starring Kevin Costner. In it he kidnaps a small child. I was sickened at one point when Costner asked to see his private parts to judge his "size". I bet that was a real* role change for Costner; a real challenge. I wonder how much research he had to do for that scene (apart from read the Talmud again).
